

EDITOR'S WORD

Dear academic and professional community, dear readers,

We have the honor and pleasure to present you the new, second in 2023, issue of the journal "Administration", a scientific journal of administration and administrative law. The journal "Administration" continues since 2010, publishing scientific and professional papers and analysis from various domains of government and administrative law. In the issue, which is in front of you, the following papers have been published: PERSONAL HEALTH DATA AND THE SIGNIFICANCE OF ITS ADMINISTRATIVE PROTECTION (Emir Mehmedović, Amila Mehmedović); FINANCIAL INTEGRATION AND STRUCTURE IN EUROPE: A COMPARATIVE CASE STUDY OF BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA AND SLOVENIA (Abdul Wahab Aidoo, Avdibašić Ajla, Ognjen Riđić); SPECIFICITY OF NON-TAX REVENUES OF THE STATE WITH REFERENCE TO BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA (Merdža Handalić Plahonjić, Ensar Bugari, Amar Kozadra); ADMINISTRATIVE DISPUTE WITHIN THE FULL JURISDICTION IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA - THE NEED AND SIGNIFICANCE (Emir Kadrić); SARAJEVO – POTENTIAL AND LIMITATIONS IN THE DEVELOPMENT OF THE CITY AND REGION (Merdža Handalić Plahonjić, Fatima Kuka); THE SITUATION AND PERSPECTIVES OF LOCAL ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT IN BOSNIA AND HERZEGOVINA (Selma Alić); MANAGEMENT AND ORGANIZATION OF THE US ARMED FORCES (NATO MEMBER) AND THE BiH ARMED FORCES (Rusmir Musa); THE ROLE OF STATE AND OTHER BODIES IN FINANCIAL INVESTIGATIONS OF CRIMINAL OFFENSES (Bećir Mustafić); THE REFORM PROCESS OF INTRODUCING THE LICENSING OF PRIMARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOL PRINCIPALS (Lejla Tuzlak, Ivona Ražnatović).

Topics represent an important segment in the understanding, knowledge and insights that are of scientific and wider social importance. The thematic units covered by this issue of the journal are a combination of different approaches to public administration and all other aspects that are more or less related to administration.

In the period after the publication of the journal number 1/2023, Editorial Board is to increase the visibility of the journal "Administration" in the new international databases.

In addition to thanking the Editorial Board for these successes, we would like to express our special gratitude to all the authors and contributors who have given and will continue to make a great contribution to increasing the visibility of the journal. In the meantime, the journal has been indexed in the International Innovative Journal Impact Factor – IIJIF.

We thank, once again, our authors, readers, editorial staff, governing bodies of the Faculty of Administration and the University of Sarajevo, representatives of scientific bases in which the journal is indexed and all those who have contributed to the development of the journal in recent years.

On behalf of the Editors of the Journal, the best regards and recommendations for this issue.

Ermin Kuka, PhD
Editor in Chief